WRITES TO OFFICIALS

MR. PAYNE CALLS THEIR ATTENTION TO CASHIER TULLOCH'S STATEMENT.

MOST SERIOUS ALLEGATIONS

THOSE AGAINST AUDITOR AND CONTROLLER IMPUGN THEIR GOOD FAITH.

Washington, May 19.—Postmaster General Payne has sent letters to the comptroller of the treasury, the auditor of the postoffice department and other department officials calling their attention to statements made by ex-Cashier Tulloch in his communication of last Saturday. The letters ask for any explanation or further information that might throw light on the subject. The formal charges of Mr. Tulloch, Mr. Payne said, have been dissected and that matter relating to particular branches of the service referred to the bureaus having jurisdiction for report.

Mr. Payne said that he regarded the charge against the auditor and the comptroller as the most serious of the allegations. He said that if those officials "allowed improper accounts to be audited or suppressed, what might be called 'pay dirt' had been found," the charges he said, impugning their good faith and integrity. Mr. Payne pointed out a difference which existed between charges of irregularity and of actual violation of law.

"A government official," he said, "may buy something which he has no authority to purchase and no authority to pay for, but the government gets the use of the article nevertheless. Irregularities do not necessarily mean anything unlawful. The department may pay out of the wrong fund, either by accident or design, yet that need not be unlawful."

Charge of Irregularity.

He said in this connection that the charge regarding the disallowance by the controller of between $30,000 and $40,000 was a charge of irregularity and not of unlawfulness, and he understood that practically all of this sum had been subsequently allowed.

"It is unfair," he suggested, "to make the public believe that the government has been cheated out of such an amount of money when it is only a question of irregularity in accounting."

The postmaster general was asked regarding the charges against former First Assistant Postmaster General Perry Heath and George W. Beavers, formerly chief of the division of salaries and allowances, and as to what effect the fact that they were out of the service would have in the consideration of this case.

"I have nothing to do," replied the postmaster general, "with the personal relations between Mr. Tulloch and Indiana politicians, nor with his hatred for the postmaster of Washington or others. If any improper act was done by anyone now in office or by anyone who is not now in office, so far as it might reflect on the department, we will investigate it."

Were Separate Establishments.

Discussing Mr. Tulloch's references to the Porto Rican service, Mr. Payne suggested that Mr. Tulloch was not charged with the responsibility for the Porto Rican establishment and that the Porto Rican establishment had no more to do with the Washington office than the Chicago office, for instance, except in name, which was for convenience in administration. He said it was a physical impossibility for Mr. Tulloch to know whether the employees at Camp Alger or in Porto Rico, or in the department, were performing the labor for which they were paid.

"Mr. Tulloch, as cashier," he said, "did not know what work any set of clerks was doing; only the postmaster general, the assistant postmaster general, or those who had charge of that part of the work would know. Some of these allegations that no work was performed are now being investigated. If anyone has drawn money without doing any service, we will try to get the money back from them. We will demand the recovery of the money. The responsible party is the postmaster of Washington, who should have known whether they were doing any work. I suppose the postmaster involved is the one now dead, Mr. Willett."

Selects Things to Be Investigated.

Speaking generally, the postmaster general said the original letters referring to the various persons against whom Mr. Tulloch made accusations were necessarily general in tenor, but now that the Tulloch letter furnishes something more definite in the way of charges they will have an opportunity to make more definite replies. "Mr. Bristow," he said, "went very carefully over Mr. Tulloch's charges and he has selected such things as ought to be considered and investigated."

August W. Machen, the superintendent of the free delivery division, who was given an indefinite leave of absence pending the investigation, called at the department Monday for the first time since his summary relief from office. He came for some personal papers he had left in his desk. Postmaster Inspector Fosnes, the acting superintendent of the division, was present and inspected all the papers before permitting Mr. Machen to take them from the office.

Postmaster General Payne was asked whether friends of Mr. Machen had requested that he resign. He said no one had requested such action. "Will Mr. Machen be permitted to resign?" he was asked. "Mr. Machen will not resign," he answered, "at least I understood it so. It is safe to assume that he will not ask it. I have reason to believe that he will not resign or ask to be permitted to resign."

RELEASED ON BOND.

Duluth Man Indicted on Charge of Subornation of Perjury.

Duluth, May 19.—C. P. McGinnis, formerly receiver of the Duluth land office, was indicted here by the grand jury in the federal court on the charge of subornation of perjury.

Several months ago Miss Annie Stensland entered lands in 5-6-14 under the stone and timber act and it is claimed that McGinnis suborned her to so enter said lands for the benefit of persons other than herself and to swear falsely as to the manner in which she had secured the money to pay for it and as to the ultimate disposition of the land.

Mr. McGinnis gave bond in the sum of $5,000 and was promptly released. He declared his entire innocence and says that he is the victim of a trumped up charge.

SAYS IT IS A LIE.

Senator Platt Denies Statement of Former Cashier Tulloch.

New York, May 19.—Senator Thomas C. Platt has denied the statement made by Seymour W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington postoffice, that former Superintendent Beavers of the salary and allowance division of the postoffice department had requested a high official to use his influence to get bonding business for a bonding company which Senator Platt's son is interested in, saying that "Senator Platt would greatly appreciate it."

"The statement is an absolute lie and Tulloch knew it was a lie," said the senator. "I have no interest, direct or indirect, in any bonding company."

TROLLEY CARS RUN

NONUNION STREET RAILWAY EMPLOYEES ALMOST UNMOLESTED AT BRIDGEPORT.

SOME EXCITING INCIDENTS

MAYOR MULVHILL ACCUSED OF BEING CHIEF INSTIGATOR OF SUNDAY'S RIOT.

Bridgeport, Conn., May 19.—With few exceptions the running of trolley cars on the lines of the Connecticut Railway and Lighting company, manned by nonunion motormen and conductors, was not interfered with. Fifteen men and boys were locked up during the day on charges of intimidation. The majority of the prisoners were using offensive language to the strike breakers at the time of their arrest. The men were placed under $1,000 bonds each and the boys were obliged to furnish a $300 bond.

A trolley car, manned by nonunion men, and guarded by two deputy sheriffs, was fired upon by a man on the West Side in the afternoon. No damage was done and the man escaped after a stern chase by the officers.

Despite the apparent quiet which prevailed over the city at night, the day was not without its sensational incidents. The most important feature of the day was the action taken at a meeting of the police commissioners, in which some of Bridgeport's most prominent citizens participated.

This meeting was called because of the difference of opinion between Mayor Mulvihill and the police commissioners as to the disposition of the police department during the present trouble. Mayor Mulvihill presided at the meeting. Early in the session he evaded questions which were put to him by gentlemen present and his bearing eventually resulted in several speeches being made in which the mayor was directly accused of doing more to incite riot Sunday than all other causes combined. This the mayor strongly denied, but before the meeting was over he agreed that, hereafter, during the strike he would not interfere with any action taken by the police commissioners in conducting the police department.

MORE MEN AT WORK.

But the Strike Still Cripples Business at Omaha.

Omaha, May 19.—Although there were more men at work during the day for employers against whom a strike was declared three weeks ago, than at any time since the strike began, there was far from a general resumption of business. The large restaurants which had announced they would open, failed to do so, and the laundries did little if anything. The employing teamsters had a good force at work, although drivers were guarded by deputies. Forty additional horsehoes went on strike in the morning, the issue being whether or not the union label should appear on horsehoes set by union labor. The railroads say they have filled the places of striking freight handlers and that the strikers will not be taken back.

ANOTHER STRIKE IMMINENT.

Chicago Gas Workers May Again Go Out.

Chicago, May 19.—Another strike of Chicago gas workers is imminent. At a union meeting at night it was decided to send a committee to demand the reinstatement of 195 discharged strikers, whom the arbitration board last week refused to order reinstated, and also reinstatement of 180 men discharged since the arbitration board made its decision. The committee received instructions to secure an immediate answer or call a strike.

TRIED TO EXTORT MONEY.

Young Missourian Captured by a Posse Through a Decoy.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 19.—An effort has been made to extort $5,000 from the Burlington railway officials here under a threat to blow up with dynamite one of the fast mail trains running between Kansas City and Omaha. A decoy in the form of a bag filled with rock was placed at a spot designated by the robbers near the town of Watson, Mo. At midnight the form of a man was seen to approach the bag, but rapidly disappeared upon discovery of a posse lying in wait. He was captured and proved to be J. H. Franklin, a young farmer. He declines to give the names of others who are supposed to be with him in the plot.

Forest Fires in Montana.

Have, Mont., May 19.—Forest fires in the Bear Paw mountains have burned over a tract eight miles long and six miles wide. One big sawmill and a number of cabins and barns have been swept away. So far as can be learned there was no loss of life.

Booth Tarkington Very Weak.

Indianapolis, May 19.—The condition of Booth Tarkington, who is suffering with typhoid fever, is much more serious. He has been unable to take solid food for several weeks and is very weak.

TWO LUMBERMEN PERISH.

Several Others Badly Injured in a West Virginia Fire.

Huntington, W. Va., May 19.—Howard Pollette and Wilbur Chestman were burned to death at Campus, Wyoming county, and several other companions were so badly injured that they may die. The men were asleep in a second story log building and all exit was cut off when the building was discovered to be on fire. The dead and injured were lumbermen.

Admit Sailors and Miners.

Milwaukee, May 19.—The Woodmen of the World's convention took a new departure in adding to its eligible list, bituminous coal miners and seafarers. The question of taking in saloonkeepers was debated and it was decided to continue to bar them and also sandstone cutters.

Match Box Warnings.

Just now, when so much is heard of the agitation against expectation in the streets, it is interesting to learn that the Argentine health department has experimentally arranged to have comprehensive instructions printed on the labels of over 8,000,000 match boxes explaining how the spread of tuberculosis might be prevented.

It saved me from worse than a living death. Only for your treatment I should have been on the other side of the River or in the Madhouse. I would to God that I had the power to spread to the entire world the curative powers of your Greatest of all Blood Cures.

An Ulcer Cured.

H. Brann, Fargo, N. JUDGE SPOONER CONVENES COURT
Regular May Term of the District Court Convened This Afternoon at 1:30.
THE CALENDAR IS CALLED.
C. A. Walker is Appointed Foreman of the Grand Jury, and They Retire.

One of the first cases to be taken up is that of Lottie Geiser vs the City of Brainerd. She brings suit for damages against the city for injuries alleged to have been received on account of a defective walk. A. T. Larson appears for the plaintiff and W. A. Fleming for the city.
Several motions were made this afternoon and argued and the real work of the term will not commence before tomorrow morning.

A Nation of Smokers.
Notwithstanding all one hears about the growth of the cigarette habit in this country, England occupies a comparatively lowly place as a smoking nation, says the London Tatler. Statistics prove that as smokers Dutchmen are well ahead of all the other nations. Germans come second, although man for man, they consume less than half as much tobacco as Dutchmen. Three times as many cigarettes are consumed annually in England as in either Germany or Holland, but as consumers of pipe tobacco both these countries are far ahead of us.

CITY COUNCIL ACCEPTS THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY OFFER

Site Decided Upon by the Board is Accepted by Council Last Night--City Engineer Instructed to Make Survey of City for a General Sewerage System.

The Brainerd city council did finally come to the conclusion that the offer made by Andrew Carnegie to donate $12,000 for a free public library and reading room had some merit to it, and at the meeting held last night in council chambers adopted the following resolution and now Brainerd is sure to have a substantial and up-to-date building of this kind in common with all other towns and cities of any size or importance in the northwest:

WHEREAS, Andrew Carnegie, of the city of New York, has offered to the city of Brainerd, Minn., the sum of $12,000, for the purpose of erecting a free public library building in and for said city and on the terms and conditions therein mentioned, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the said offer be and the same is hereby gratefully accepted on the terms and conditions therein named, and we agree to comply with the same and to keep and maintain said library when constructed.

RESOLVED, That the thanks of the city be extended to Mr. Carnegie for his munificent gift.

The library question, which so far as the public has been concerned, has been a dead issue for some time, was brought to the surface again by its most ardent sponsors, H. I. Cohen and Prof. T. B. Hartley, when they submitted a report of the proceedings of the library board which had to do with the buying of a site for the proposed new Carnegie library building. Mr. Cohen also handed in a long list of names of business men of the city who had subscribed money to buy a site for the library, the aggregate sum being $1000. The site decided upon by the board, the one which was submitted for approval of the council was the vacant lots on the corner of Main and Seventh streets, just north of the N. P. tracks. Mr. Cohen stated that a price had been made on another site on the corner of Eighth and Main, but this offer has been withdrawn and the board had now but the one proposition to submit.

Mr. Cohen stated in presenting the report that it was with no little work that this amount was raised, although the committee which started out with the list met with but little opposition. It was his belief that if more time was taken that even a greater amount could be secured, but he stated that the sum was sufficient to buy the site mentioned and that was all that was necessary.

On motion of Alderman C. D. Johnson the report was accepted and confirmed.

Mr. Cohen then brought up the matter of the offer of Andrew Carnegie and before the question was disposed of the above resolution was adopted.

The resolution did not find smooth sailing, however, after it was drawn up. When it was put to a vote the first named to be called was that of Alderman Halladay, and he did not jump at the proposition too readily. He asked to be excused from voting and was excused. Alderman Gardner took the same means to evade the proposition and then down the line Alderman Murphy chimed in likewise. When it came to Alderman C. D. Johnson it was slightly different and there was a shifting of the riggings and the jolly old sailors began to get ready for a squall. Mr. Johnson stated that he would vote "yes" on the proposition, but for no other reason than that the people had already voted to maintain a public library and the council was bound to do this. Therefore as long as it was on their hands he thought the offer ought to be taken up. Then Alderman Halladay, after the matter had been explained to him somewhat, reconsidered his first vote and cast it in favor of the proposition and everybody got on the band wagon and rode around the loop. The resolution carried and a sigh of relief went up from those who had the matter at heart.

Much credit is due Messrs. Cohen, Hartley and Mons Mahlum for their efforts on behalf of the matter, especially in raising the necessary funds to purchase the site. Credit is also due Mayor Halsted, who was at the meeting of the council, and laid the facts regarding the proposition before the council, and his explanations certainly had weight.

As the matter now stands relative to the library and the obligations the city has taken upon itself the following facts are reiterated: At the last general election the question whether or not the city would maintain a free public library, fixing a levy for the purpose at one-half mill on the total assessed valuation of the city, was voted on and the people decided affirmatively. The levy with the present valuation will bring in about $900, so that to secure the amount the first year required to be in a position to accept the Carnegie gift, the council will have to raise but $200 or $300 to make up the $1200, or ten per cent of the amount of the offer, which will go to maintaining the library.

GENERAL SEWERAGE SYSTEM

The city council took another bracer and did a good stroke in the direction of getting started on the general sewerage system of the city. A resolution was unanimously adopted, instructing City Engineer Woolman to proceed to make a survey and to furnish plans, maps, etc., for a general sewerage system throughout the city, also to furnish cost, etc., of the same. He was also instructed to make a separate survey of the Second ward with a view of putting in a sewer in that district in conformity with the general sewerage system. As near as possible the council will, after securing the survey for the one general big sewerage system, proceed to map off the city into sewer districts, and it is expected that the Second ward will compose one district. The city engineer was instructed to use all possible speed in this matter so that the work in the Second ward can be finished this summer.

JOSEPH WEITZEL RE-ELECTED

Another important matter was the election of the street commissioner for the ensuing year. It is evident that the proposition to consolidate the two offices of street commissioner and city engineer died out before the meeting, as the question was not mentioned at all. There were five candidates for the position as follows: John McCarthy, Joseph Weitzel, M. N. Geiser, Herman Fleisher and P. G. Fogelstrom. On motion an informal ballot was taken and McCarthy got three votes, Weitzel four, Fleisher 1 and Fogelstrom 1. A motion prevailed that a formal ballot be taken and this resulted in Weitzel receiving six votes, enough to elect and he was declared the choice of the council to fill the position for the coming year.

The appointment of H. Stein and Otto Hagelin received the stamp of approval of the city council.

The Brainerd fire department came at the city council in an indirect way when their bill for $300, for services rendered from May 1, 1902 to May 1, 1903, was read. The fire ladders want some money to help out in entertaining the state firemen and as the council has given them money every year, they had a right, they thought, to expect it this year. Alderman Robertson was the only member of the council to vote "no" and he explained that he voted this way because he was one of the committee that reported in favor of cutting out in the future all appropriations which he thought illegal. The bill was allowed, however, and the boys have added $300 more to the fund to help out at the tournament.

Alderman Robertson, as chairman of a special committee appointed to devise some means of keeping account of the supplies of the street commissioner, had a form all drawn up, which was recommended to be used. On motion of Alderman C. D. Johnson the report was accepted and the committee was authorized to purchase the necessary books to keep the accounts.

The special committee appointed to investigate the saloon of Bolsey & Durette before a liquor license was granted them, reported favorably on the matter and the license was forthcoming.

A number of taxpayers along Seventh street south petitioned the council for a bridge over the Betzold creek. The matter was referred to the street committee in conjunction with the city attorney to report at the next meeting.

The recommendation of Supt. Peterson that Lineman Fred Olson's salary be raised from $60 to $65, per month was on motion referred to the electric light committee to report at the next meeting.

A resolution was adopted ordering the Minnesota Water Works company to lay a water main along Fourth avenue from Ash avenue to Roosevelt avenue.

The application of D. J. McKinnon to have the hack license of John Craddock transferred to him was granted.

The proposition of the Kelly Steam Roller company was given the cold shoulder but the council handed Mr. Milnor a bouquet when they extended a vote of thanks to him for his kindness in talking them to a standstill on a steam roller proposition and how to make good roads.

The council was handed a "nice package" when the batch of small-pox bills were sent back by the board of county commissioners for their perusal and kind consideration. The bills incurred by the city, and which are supposedly to be paid by the county, looked like cancelled Canadian postage stamps since the commissioners delivered them over. Some were marked, "able to pay," others, "excessive" and still others, "non-resident." Most every bill has been butchered, either thrown out entirely or cut in two. They were all referred to the chairman of the board of health and the city attorney to report at the next meeting of the city council.

M. K. Swartz made a proposition to sell the city some boxelder seedlings to replace the trees that had succumbed in the city park. Some one asked if there was not a contract with the parties who sold the trees in the park to the city, that they would replace all those which died out. Alderman C. D. Johnson ventured the assertion that the contract was like the trees, "died." No action was taken relative to the proposition of Mr. Swartz.

The ordinance modifying the one relating to the erection of frame buildings within the fire limits was read by City Attorney Fleming and it was placed on its first reading.

The session wound up with a one-act comedy in which Alderman Murphy and Ex-Alderman Fogelstrom assayed the leading roles. There was a quick succession of wordy exchanges, a clinch and a breakaway, and it was all over the matter of placing arc lights in the Fourth ward. Fogelstrom claimed the precedent of having secured two lights for the ward, but was not because they were placed wrong. Alderman Murphy called the ex-alderman a bag of wind etc., and the curtain was dropped.

YOUNGLEROY LEASE IS INCORRIGIBLE

Sad Case Where Mother is Compelled to Make Complaint Against an Only Son

ORDERED COMMITTED BY COURT

To the State Training School At Owatonna--Order Sent to District Court.

There was an extremely sad case in the municipal court this morning, one where a kindly appearing mother looked the very picture of despair as she took her oath to testify against an only son, whom she has no control over and who is considered incorrigible, and who was later ordered by Judge Warner to be committed to the state training school at Owatonna.

The name of the young man is Leroy Lease and he is known more or less about the city. Mrs. Frank Teabo, his mother, has tried in vain to keep the young man within the bounds but her efforts have been of no avail. He was dismissed from school, as the teachers could do nothing with him and since that time he has been constantly getting into trouble.

After the hearing the court ordered the lad sent to the training school and certified the case to the district court. It was an affecting scene when the mother, who had been instrumental in bringing the young lad to this end, clasped him in her arms and hugged him passionately, the tears streaming from her eyes. The lad never quivered and seemed to take the whole proceedings as a matter of fact way.

Another Stroke of Apoplexy Last Night and Her Condition Today is Very Precarious.

It will be sad news to the many friends of Mrs. T. M. Reilly to learn that she has suffered another stroke of apoplexy and that her life now hangs by a thread. On account of her advanced years and her long siege of sickness but little hope is given by the attending physician for her recovery.

SIGNS MUELLER BILL.

Governor Yates Says the Measure Is Futile.

Springfield, Ill., May 19.—Governor Yates has signed the Mueller bill, the Chicago traction measure, the threatened defeat of which by the alleged unwarranted use of Speaker Miller's gavel, led to a riot recently in the house of representatives here.
In approving the bill the governor says:

"I believe that the opponents of this bill are right in claiming that it is futile. I believe that under its provisions the city council of 1903 could make terms in regard to taking over in 1923, either by the city or by a new grantee, the property of the street railway so onerous and burdensome and prohibitory that neither the city council of 1923, nor the new grantee of 1923 could or would turn over the property; in which case it would follow that a vested right would by that time have accrued to the railroad company, to have either the city council of 1923, or the new grantee of 1923 take over the property at the terms provided in the ordinance of 1903, then, inevitably, the existing corporation would have the right to continue in the streets of the city perpetually or at least indefinitely.

"So believing, I would veto this bill were it not that I have great confidence in the city council of 1903, and greater confidence in the people.

"I believe that this bill should be vetoed were the general assembly in session and that then either this bill should be amended or a new bill passed, without the faults of this bill, but the calamity of a special session with its great expense to the state, probably amounting to half a million dollars, must be avoided if possible.

"I wish, however, to distinctly state that in the year 1903, the city council of the city of Chicago should pass a grant or ordinance imposing terms so manifestly onerous that neither the city council of 1923, nor the grantee of 1923 could take over the property upon the terms imposed. I will not hesitate to, within twenty-four hours, assemble the general assembly in special session for the purpose of repealing this act and providing an act with necessary restrictions."

SHOT FIVE TIMES.

Former Lieutenant Governor Knoblock of Louisiana Is Killed.

Thibodaux, La., May 19.—A shooting affray which resulted in the death of Former Lieutenant Governor Henry Clay Knoblock, occurred in Main street. The affair created intense excitement. The shooting was done by James Garault, a barber. Several witnesses of the shooting said that Garault shot in self-defense.

The two men were seen talking together when Knoblock drew his revolver. The weapon failed to explode.
Meantime Garault whipped out his revolver and opened fire on his adversary. That his aim was true was established by the autopsy held by the coroner, who found five wounds in the dead man's body. Any one of the wounds would have proved fatal.

Garault surrendered to the authorities immediately.

Henry Clay Knoblock was a native of Lafourche Parish. He served as lieutenant governor under Governor Samuel D. McEnery, now United States senator. He had been practicing law at Thibodaux, where he lived with his wife.

DREAM AWAKENED HIM.

Frank Burns Then Saw Yeager and the Missing Woman.

Kokomo, Ind., May 19.—A dream was the cause of one man seeing Louis Yeager and the strange woman who lured him to death the night of the murder. Frank Burns, who lives near where the blood was found, said he dreamed that night of seeing some one shot in a buggy with a woman with him and the fear that the victim might be his own son, who was out, awakened him. He looked out and saw Yeager's buggy and another rig and presently a shot was fired. This he related on the witness stand.

At Sharpville two men were found who saw Yeager in that village Sunday afternoon preceding his murder.
The strange woman who holds the key to the Yeager murder mystery has not yet been found.

came infatuated with the prisoner, gave him a revolver and thus assisted him to escape.

Montgomery is badly wounded, having been shot through the left lung by the jailer's wife and through the right groin by the jailer just before the latter died.

FIERCE COLLISIONS OCCUR.

Irish Factions Fight Over Welcome to King Edward.

Dublin, May 19.—Scenes of extreme disorder were witnessed at a meeting of citizens here at night in the rotunda in support of the Irish parliamentary fund, owing to the presence of members of the Gaelic league who are opposed to giving King Edward a friendly welcome on his coming visit to Ireland. Timothy Harrington, lord mayor of Dublin, was in the chair.
While John Redmond was addressing the audience Mrs. McBride, formerly Miss Maude Gonne, advanced to the platform and interrupted the proceedings by asking Lord Mayor Harrington whether he intended, as head of the municipality, to oppose the presentation of an address of welcome to the king. Mr. Harrington replied in an evasive way. Mrs. McBride insisted on a direct answer, whereupon scenes of the wildest disorder occurred and prevented John Redmond from continuing his speech.

The members of the Gaelic league tried to storm the platform amid cries of "pull them out." Fierce collisions between the Gaelic leaguers and the other members of the assembly ensued. Chairs were hurled to and from the platform and many persons were injured in the desperate efforts made to eject the disturbers and restore order. John O'Donnell, member of parliament from South Mayo, was badly injured in the head during the scuffle. Many persons fled, terror-stricken, from the hall.

John Redmond persevered in continuing his speech and eventually a semblance of order was regained and a resolution in accordance with the object of the meeting was carried.

MAKING SOME HEADWAY.

Revolutionists Decimating Venezuelan Government Troops.

Washington, May 19.—Advices of a thoroughly reliable character received in Washington under date of May 1 show that the Venezuelan revolutionists are not only holding their own but are making considerable headway.
The districts of Coro, Barquisimento, Tucacas, on the west side, Ciudad Bolivar on the Orinoco and its surrounding country are still in the power of the revolutionists.

Within sixty miles of La Guayra, in the Rio Chico district, the revolutionists are holding forth and although the government a few weeks ago sent an expedition to drive them out, they succeeded only in making them retreat and within a few days they were again back there. A battle took place in which the government lost over 1,000 men and about 300 wounded were brought back to La Guayra after a two days' fight.

On the other hand the revolutionists have not succeeded in ousting the government or in winning any particular fight, but they are decimating the government troops and the government has no more than 3,000 men under arms.

An expedition went from La Guayra by boat with about 1,500 men, to Tucacas, there to meet the forces of the revolutionists, but the result is very doubtful.

Two days ago the news came that General Matos had left Curacao and landed in Venezuela at a point called Chirivichi, which is a few miles west of Puerto Cabello. It is said that an aggressive campaign on his part is again to be undertaken.

HAD CHANCE TO ESCAPE.

Frank Tanke Alleged to Have Visited Saloons in St. Paul.

St. Paul, May 19.—It is stated that the sheriff of St. James, Minn., while conveying Frank Tanke to the penitentiary at Stillwater, stopped almost twenty-four hours in this city and that quite a party, including Tanke, who is under life sentence for murder, went around town and visited saloons to such an extent that Tanke was very sick from liquor. The prisoner is said to have had many opportunities to escape. Sheriff Forsythe denied the story when Governor Van Sant asked an explanation of him.

icide in Prison.

New York, May 19.—Thomas Anderson, who recently had been released from prison, went to the residence of his wife, Ida Potter Anderson, in Brooklyn, and after vainly endeavoring to get her to consent to live with him again, drew a revolver and shot her, inflicting what probably will prove a fatal wound.

An hour after being arrested, Anderson was found dead. It is supposed that he had secreted a poison about his person and had swallowed it.

WOULD DECORATE MOTHERS.

French Senator Thinks They Should Have a Ribbon and a Cross.

Paris, May 19.—Senator Plot has written to Premier Combes proposing that the government accord decorations to mothers of families. The senator says the depopulation of France is a serious menace and urges that mothers of large families are entitled to equal consideration with firemen, gymnasts and others who have recently been decorated.
M. Plot expects to propose in parliament the creation of a mothers' decoration, consisting of a ribbon and a cross.

BREAKS ALL ROAD RECORDS.

President Roosevelt Does Some Rapid Traveling by Coach.

Berenda, Cal., May 19.—President Roosevelt broke all road records for Yosemite park travel when his coach came from Yosemite to Raymond, where his train awaited, in ten hours of actual travel. The distance is sixty-nine miles. The president passed the night in camp at Bridal Veil falls, a few miles from the postoffice at Yosemite. He slept soundly, and when he awoke declared he had never felt better in his life. His look-bore out his words. He had lost all appearances of being tired and his eye was bright. The members of his party, who had passed Saturday afternoon and Sunday at Yosemite, joined the president at the falls. Here he bade good-bye to his guides, Lydig and Leonard, and mounted to his seat on the coach beside the driver.

No incident occurred to mar the pleasure of the drive and the coaches rolled into Wawona shortly before 11 o'clock. Here luncheon was taken and then the trip to Raymond was begun. The driven of the president's coach was on his mettle and he put his horses to their best paces.

When Berenda was reached the president found a large crowd gathered to meet him.

A special train from Fresno brought members of the chamber of commerce and their friends, and they warmly greeted the president as he appeared on the rear platform of his car. He made a brief address thanking them for coming to see him.

BRAVE FIREMAN'S DEED.

Climbs Onto the Pilot and Saves a Little Girl.

Winona, Minn., May 19.—Bravery on the part of a fireman on an engine pulling a special stock train on the Milwaukee road, which passed through Winona, saved a two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Haber-berg from a terrible death.

The little child was playing on the Milwaukee track, near Winona street crossing, and did not hear the engine blow the whistle, as the train approached at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour.

The engineer applied the brakes, but the train was going at such a pace that it was some time before they took effect.

The fireman, noting the danger of the child, climbed out onto the running board of the engine, ran by the boiler, and dropped down onto the pilot of the engine, and bracing himself against one of the front supporting rods, reached out and lifted the little girl from the track and saved her.

The train was brought to a standstill, and the fireman with the little girl in his arms climbed from the pilot.
The little girl was not in any way injured.

SNOW VERY DEEP.

Railroad Line Fringed With Dead
Stock in Montana.

Have, Mont., May 19.—The storm west of here from Concord to the other side of the Cascades continues. The snow at Cutbank and westward is from two to three feet deep, and a heavy loss is reported among sheep and cattle. Trainmen say the snow west of Cutbank is waist-deep and report large numbers of cattle and sheep lying dead along the right of way. The Great Northern company is experiencing difficulty in handling its freights and the passenger service is somewhat crippled, although trains are moving.

Butte, Mont., May 19.—Advices from Northern and Southern sections of the state tell of extremely heavy losses among lambs as a result of the snowstorm. Dillon reports say tens of dozens of young lambs have fallen beneath the ferocity of the heaviest blizzard for May in the history of this section.
